

CHEAP SEATS

Perth welcomes the return of renowned British artist Becky Blair, as her latest exhibition entitled between me & you opens. The highly anticipated showcase features a range of oil and acrylic pieces, inspired by imagery from Blair's travels around Western Australia. With a melancholy theme, the exhibition includes landscapes, people and animal imagery, evoking movement, fun and lightness. Colour and texture is used to bring eclectic ideas to the audience, whilst remaining relatable, allowing the viewer to create their own stories and have their imaginations ignited by her art. Blair's work is highly sought after and she has been privately commissioned around the world to create unique and one of a kind pieces. The exhibition runs from Friday 5 to Sunday 21 December, at the Gadfly Gallery in Dalkeith.
