natural wonder

Jane Flowers is uniquely connected to the stunning landscapes she captures on canvas, from bird's-eye depictions of remote Western Australia to her more intimate studies of Tasmania's coastal reaches. "I cannot paint what I have not seen, smelt, sensed on my skin or felt underfoot," she elaborates, a deeply personal mantra under which her paintings live and breathe. See her love of sailing, diving and nature come together in 'North South' at Dalkeith's Gadfly Gallery, WA, from February 5-21; for more information, call (08) 9386 8369 or visit www.gadflygallery.com.

Get crafty and creative with a little help from three exceptionally illustrated books full of design advice, creative ideas and step-by-step instructions. Whether you're a beginner or an old hand at DIY craft, these books traverse the territory between found materials, canvas art and textile design, with decorating ideas for those passionate about the handmade. Fabulous Fabric Paint, Quick Art and Smart Art ($32.99 each, Metz Press), all by Monique Day-Wilde and Angie Franke. Available from bookstores nationally; call (02) 9725 2933 or visit www.garyallen.com.au for more information.

Summer will never be over as long as Judith Graham's portraits of picturesque seaside and vibrant city life are around to capture our imaginations and soothe our souls. From portly bathers swimming in bright turquoise waters to the bemused patrons of busy bistros, Judith's depictions of landmark Sydney beaches and Parisian cafe society are imbued with a sense of nostalgia and a love of the outdoors. Purchase prints or originals direct from her studio by calling (02) 8021 3428 or visit www.judithgraham-art.com.au to view Judith's work online.
